

hi-fi+

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AUDIO FEST - PART TWO

Our last look at Denver from the traditional audio side

By Alan Sircom | Nov 08, 2016

News

Crystal Cable has been showing prototypes of its Cube System for some time, but it's now in its ready to roll form. The 200W $16,995 system in a box that draws heavily from sister brand Siltech's unique SAGA amplifier system. It's a perfect partner for the company's Arabesque Minissimo loudspeakers and Dreamline Plus cables, also shown at the show. In many respects, this is the ideal small-but-perfectly-formed audio system.